"The De-suung Skilling Programme offers a wide range of training courses, including technical skills, entrepreneurship, and personal development. Inspired by His Majesty The King, all courses are designed to cater to the specific needs and interests of the Desuups, equipping them with practical skills and knowledge that are in demand in the job market.

89. TIGERS AND COWS

This traditional Bhutanese game was a favorite time pass of many cow herders in the mountains. In homage of this old popular game, the artisans designed this ceramic game - tigers vs cows. Who wins is upto the players, one has 4 tigers, the other 20 cows. While the tiger hunts, the cows can attempt to block the tigers movements.

By providing short-term training opportunities to young Desuups, the DSP addresses the issue of unemployment in Bhutan while also contributing to the nation's development goals. The program recognizes the potential of Bhutanese youths and seeks to harness their talents and skills to build a strong and prosperous economy. Through the DSP, participants not only gain valuable skills but also develop a sense of civic responsibility and active participation in nation-building, fostering a culture of service and dedication in Bhutanese society."

93. THE FOUR POWERFUL ANIMALS

Tak, Seng, Chung, Druk

The Dragon (elegance), the Garuda (fearlessness), the Tiger (confidence) and the Snow Lion (vitality) - this beautiful miniature set was designed by trainer, Desuup Kencho Thinley during the skilling programme. While paintings of these auspicious animals are normally adorned on most Bhutanese homes, they are also carved into wooden masks. This miniature ceramic souvenir set is sure to bring your home and you luck and success.
